IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 3, 1957

Mrs. CHURCH introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Rules

A BILL

To establish a Joint Committee on Foreign Intelligence.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 That there is hereby established a Joint Committee on
- 4 Foreign Intelligence to be composed of nine Members of
- 5 the Senate to be appointed by the President of the Senate,
- 6 and nine Members of the House of Representatives to be
- 7 appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
- 8 In each instance not more than five Members shall be
- 9 members of the same political party. Vacancies in the
- 10 membership of the joint committee shall not affect the
- 11 power of the remaining members to execute the functions

I

1 of the joint committee, and shall be filled in the same manner
2 as in the case of the original appointment. The joint com-
3 mittee shall select a chairman and a vice chairman from 4 among its members, and shall determine the number of 5 members to constitute a quorum for the transaction of 6 business.

7 SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing 8 studies of all aspects of the foreign-intelligence activities of 9 the Government. The Director of the Central Intelligence 10 Agency shall keep the joint committee fully and currently 11 informed with respect to the Agency's activities. All bills, 12 resolutions, and other matters in the Senate or the House of 13 Representatives relating primarily to the Central Intelligence
14 Agency or its activities shall be referred to the joint com-
15 mittee. The members of the joint committee who are Mem-
16 bers of the Senate shall from time to time report to the 17 Senate, and the members of the joint committee who are 18 Members of the House of Representatives shall from time 19 to time report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their 20 recommendations with respect to matters within the juris-
21 diction of their respective Houses which are (1) referred 22 to the joint committee, or (2) otherwise within the juris-
23 diction of the joint committee.

24 (b) The joint committee, or any duly authorized sub-25 committee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to

2 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
3 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
4 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such printing
5 and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems 6 advisable. The cost of stenographic services to report such 7 hearings shall not be in excess of 25 cents per hundred 8 words. The provisions of sections 102 to 104, inclusive, of 9 the Revised Statutes shall apply in case of any failure of 10 any witness to comply with a subpoena or to testify when 11 summoned under authority of this section.

12 (c) The joint committee is empowered to appoint and 13 fix the compensation of such experts, consultants, techni-
14 cians, and clerical and stenographic assistants as it deems 15 necessary and advisable, but the compensation so fixed 16 shall not exceed the compensation prescribed under the 17 Classification Act of 1949, as amended, for comparable 18 duties. The joint committee is authorized to utilize the 19 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the depart-
20 ments and establishments of the Government.

21 SEC. 3. There are hereby authorized to be appropriated
22 such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions

JANUARY 5, 1957

Mrs. KEE submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Rules

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That there is hereby established a Joint Com-
3 mittee on Central Intelligence to be composed of seven 4 Members of the Senate to be appointed by the President of 5 the Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representa-
6 tives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Repre-
7 sentatives. In each instance not more than four Members 8 shall be members of the same political party.

9 SEC. 2. The joint committee shall make continuing 10 studies of the intelligence activities and problems relating to 11 the gathering of intelligence affecting the national security
12 and of its coordination and utilization by the various depart-

1 ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the Government.
2 The Central Intelligence Agency and other services engaged
3 in foreign intelligence activities shall keep the joint committee
4 fully and currently informed with respect to their activities.

5 All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the Senate or the 6 House of Representatives relating primarily to the Central 7 Intelligence Agency and to other services engaged in foreign 8 intelligence activities shall be referred to the joint committee.

9 The members of the joint committee who are Members of the 10 Senate shall from time to time report to the Senate, and the 11 members of the joint committee who are members of the 12 House of Representatives shall from time to time report to 13 the House, by bill or otherwise, their recommendations with 14 respect to matters within the jurisdiction of their respective 15 Houses which are (1) referred to the joint committee or (2)
16 otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint committee.

17 SEC. 3. Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
18 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
19 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be
20 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original selec-
21 tion. The joint committee shall select a chairman and a vice 22 chairman from among its members.

23 SEC. 4. The joint committee, or any duly authorized 24 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to 25 sit and act at such places and times, to require, by subpoena or

1 otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and production
2 of such books, papers, and documents, to administer such 3 oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such printing and 4 binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems advis-
5 able. The cost of stenographic services to report such hear-6 ings shall not be in excess of 25 cents per hundred words.

7 SEC. 5. The joint committee is empowered to appoint
8 such experts, consultants, technicians, and clerical and steno-9 graphic assistants as it deems necessary and advisable. The 10 committee is authorized to utilize the services, information, 11 facilities, and personnel of the departments and establish-12 ments of the Government on a reimbursable basis with the 13 prior consent of the heads of the departments or agencies
14 concerned.

15 SEC. 6. The expenses of the joint committee, which 16 shall not exceed $250,000 per year, shall be paid one-half 17 from the contingent fund of the Senate and one-half from 18 the contingent fund of the House of Representatives upon 19 vouchers signed by the chairman.

2D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 367

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 24, 1958

Mr. SANTANGELO submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Rules

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That there is hereby established a Joint Com-
3 mittee on Intelligence Matters to be composed of nine Mem-4 bers of the Senate to be appointed by the President of the 5 Senate, and nine Members of the House of Representatives
6 to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representa-7 tives. In each instance not more than five Members shall 8 be members of the same political party.

9 SEC. 2. The joint committee shall make continuing 10 studies of the intelligence activities and problems relating 11 to the gathering of intelligence affecting the national security

1 and of its coordination and utilization by the various depart-
2 ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the Government.
3 The Central Intelligence Agency and related intelligence 4 services shall keep the joint committee fully and currently 5 informed with respect to their activities. All bills, resolu-
6 tions, and other matters in the Senate or the House of 7 Representatives relating primarily to the Central Intelligence
8 Agency and related intelligence services shall be referred to 9 the joint committee. The members of the joint committee
10 who are Members of the Senate shall from time to time
11 report to the Senate, and the members of the joint committee 12 who are Members of the House of Representatives shall from 13 time to time report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their 14 recommendations with respect to matters within the juris-
15 diction of their respective Houses which are (1) referred 16 to the joint committee or (2) otherwise within the jurisdic-
17 tion of the joint committee.

18 SEC. 3. Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
19 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
20 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be
21 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original selec-
22 tion. The joint committee shall select a chairman and a vice
23 chairman from among its members.

24 SEC. 4. The joint committee, or any duly authorized
25 subcommittee thereof is authorized to hold such hearings,
